Standard Reference Materials: Preparation of Nbs White Cast Iron Spectrochemical Standards (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Robert E Michaelis

Forgotten Books, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Standard Reference Materials: Preparation of Nbs White Cast Iron Spectrochemical Standards Within the framework of the nbs Institute for Materials Research the area of standard reference materials is a broad and important one, including the preparation, characterization and distribution of a wide variety of materials in such diverse fields as metallurgy, polymers and inorganic materials. In carrying out such a program there is much interaction with representatives of industry and science, beginning with dis eussions as to which primary standard materials will do most to advance technology, the furnishing of materials and fabri cation of samples, and the characterization and certification of the materials by cooperative efforts. The many groups participating in a standards program are very interested in detailed information on specific aspects of the program but to date there has been no publication outlet for such written discussions.
