RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 48 pages. OCLC Number: 680550803 Excerpt: . . . 4 What I would like to do is invite, in our absence, our able staff. Patty Forbes and Paul Cooksey will conduct the meeting. Then I will return. I have to go over to a couple of other committees. We have five presentations. I would like to ask each of them to be kept to the 2-minute range, if possible. That will be as an opener to the discussion, at which point each participant would seek recognition from Patty simply by either raising your hand or just holding your nameplate up, and she will duly record it and put you in line to speak. I do not want anybody to feel constrained. If there is an immediate rejoinder to something, let's have a good discussion and get at it that way. If I could invite the economist from NFIB, Bruce Phillips, why don't you lead off and then we will just go down the line. Tony Wilkinson, Linda Calbom, Lloyd Blanchard, and John Whitmore; and then we can engage in the discussion from there. Thank you, Bruce. STATEMENT OF BRUCE PHILLIPS, SENIOR FELLOW IN REGULATORY STUDIES, NATIONAL FEDERATION OF INDEPENDENT BUSINESS EDUCATION FOUNDATION Mr. P. Thank you. Good morning, Senator Kerry and HILLIPS members of the roundtable. I appreciate being asked to say a few words about the importance of small firms, having worked in this area for almost 30 years, as well as the availability of debt capital for new and growing small businesses. These remarks are mine only and do not represent either NFIB, with whom I am now affiliated, or the SBA, with whom I spent over 20 years. Why are small firms important Market flexibility and opportunity for about 16 percent...
