

Original Sin: Understanding the Movement Toward Female Agency (Paperback)

By Rosenna Bakari Phd

Rosenna Bakari, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Original sin is a women empowerment book. It shifts the narrative of why humans exist with destructive conflict. The author examines the power relationship between men and women based on the sexual experience and tackles the sensitive topic of rape-culture from a fresh perspective. Bakari lays out her theory of gene pooling in poetry and prose supported with an academic essay. The theory asserts that rape changed the relationship between men and the relationship between men and women. The introduction of rape in the world initiated perpetual conflict among humans. This book is motivational literature that raises awareness of the importance of body autonomy.
