

Submarine Sailor: 198 Depth Charges and His Faith

By Edward B. Lydon

PublishAmerica. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 190 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.8in. x 0.6in. This is a true story about the author's life, from his very early years to the end of the Second World War. He was born in Baltimore, Maryland, in 1924. There are episodes about his childhood, work and play in Baltimore, about life as a city boy in the summers on a farm in Frederick, Maryland, and stories about how he qualified to become a submarine sailor. His boat, the USS Besugo 321, left New London, Connecticut, down through the Panama Canal, stopped at Pearl Harbor and went out to the South Pacific to engage the enemy. That started the test of faith. There were white knuckle times diving deep and experiencing the explosions of 198 depth charges. He included humorous accounts about shore leaves in Australia for their well-deserved rest, recreation and romance. And there was a mascot on board during all this time, a dog named Sugie whom they all agreed was the smartest sailor on board. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.

Reviews

It is just one of my personal favorite books. I was able to comprehend every little thing out of this published publication. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Isaac Olson

It is a single of the best ebooks. I am quite late in starting reading this one, but better than never. I am delighted to inform you that here is the greatest ebook I have ever read through inside my very own daily life and may be the best book for at any time.
