Excerpt from Milestones on My Long Journey: Memories of a Colonial Governor For the purposes of my Introductory Chapter, I have availed myself of Notes drawn up by my father between 1860 and 1869, the year after my marriage and my entering the Colonial Service. My aim has been to trace the evolution of the social environment of my home life at that time, and for this reason I have refrained from carrying the narrative beyond the day of my passing into a new social environment.
