

Innocent Justice: Lee Ander Never Really Considered What He Was Doing in Teaching His Young Daughter to Shoot; He Just Knew She Had the Fastest Hands He Had Ever Seen. (Paperback)

By Douglas Tennant

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Little could anyone fathom just what this beautiful young woman was capable of with her two tiny pistols. Most ruled her tiny guns out as hardly a threat and even warned her not to shoot anyone or at most she would make them mad. Cory Ander fully knew what she was capable of; but just had not been placed in the position of needing to call upon her abilities. Her father, Lee Ander, had been a Civil War hero for the wrong side and now had to make a life for his family in a hostile land. He used his superior abilities with a pistol to provide for his family at the various shows and fairs. However, his reputation quickly got around; leaving him with fewer and fewer opportunities to make a profit. He just knew that his small daughter could be as good if not better than he ever was, but her hands were just so tiny. Talking Colt into building some tiny 32 caliber Peace Makers was the solution and a dream began. Lee Ander fell in love with the game...
