

The Biggest (and Best) Flag That Ever Flew (Hardback)

By Rebecca C. Jones

Cornell Maritime Press Inc., U.S., United States, 2010. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 264 x 193 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Young Caroline Pickersgill lives with her mother and grandmother in Baltimore, Maryland. Mrs. Pickersgill, a widow, supports herself and her daughter by making flags for the ships that sail into the city. Some soldiers from Fort McHenry come to her to order the biggest and best flag in the world, and Caroline helps make it. When the British sail up the Chesapeake Bay to destroy Baltimore during the War of 1812, the defenders at the fort beat them back. After the British sail away the next day, the flag gallantly streaming over the fort is the one Caroline and her mother had sewn. aBy the dawns early light, Francis Scott Key saw it waving oer the land of the free and the home of the brave. Here is a charming (and true) childrens story about a little person who, in helping her widowed mother, became a part of our nations history. Early readerages 5-8.
