Coach Yard A coach yard for cleaning, restocking and making light repairs to passenger coaches and Pullman cars is a part of any union passenger terminal. It is proposed to provide a union coach yard wherein the cars of all roads and Pullmans will be handled. In such a yard it is proposed that cleaning, common supplies and light repairs be pooled, subject to individual inspection. Heavy repairs would be made at the individual road s own shops. Pullman cars would be handled by their owner, the Pullman Company. The present Los Angeles coach yards have a capacity of about 517 seventy-foot cars, with a total length of...
