The South African War came to a close in 1902. The Battalion had taken part in the War, and it seemed fitting that the History of the Scottish Borderers should be brought down to date. It was not long afterwards that an offer was received from our Acting Chaplain, the Rev. Dr Weir, the author of the History, to again undertake the work, and the offer was gratefully accepted. Dr Weir commenced his researches in 1904, and the valuable results are now before us. They set an appropriate seal to the many services which he has rendered to the Battalion throughout his long connection with it, and earn from all who will welcome these records the warmest thanks. May we, who are now serving, be more than ever zealous in maintaining the traditions of duty therein set forth, and in striving together to keep well what is entrusted to us.
