Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Selections From Private Memoranda Letters of Louisa Pease: Who Died August 12, 1861 The following writings will speak for themselves, without much comment from another pen. Simple as the writer herself, and with nothing to recommend them in the light of learning or literature, the object of collecting extracts from them in this style, is, that they may serve as a little memento of one, whose earthly course being run, some may love to contemplate it in its more hidden and lovely recesses; also, the desire that they may stimulate others in the path which leads to Christ, and that some may be induced the more earnestly to follow Him, as she, in her simplicity, endeavoured to do. Without any parade of religion it was easy to see on whose side she walked; indeed, so free was she from all spiritual pride, and so tenderly did she shrink from revealing the innermost secrets of her heart-communion with her God, that it was not until after her death that her Sabbath Journal was discovered - and that, too, seemed to have been but partially kept because of her fear of self-deception; still it was a delight to her, in her own quiet way, to take sweet counsel together with those who, she felt, could sympathise with and understand her, and to pour forth the troubles and doubts and difficulties that sometimes assail the Christian s path. The fragments that follow are mostly, too, of that private nature which shrinks from public gaze; still where duty was involved, where love prompted, where conscience said Give, where she felt she could lend a helping-hand, speak a word of...
