Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from West Indies: Extracts From the Journal of John Candler, Whilst Travelling in Jamaica At St. Thomas we changed our quarters fi om the mail-boat to a new steamer man-of-war of 240-horse power, carrying six officers and seventy men, charged with the mails to Porto Rico, Hayti, Cuba, and Jamaica. Such a vessel, I suppose, never sailed in these seas before, and never before was such a voyage performed so expeditiously. The distance is more than 800 miles, which we ran in four days and three hours, including all stops and detentions. The capital of Porto Rico is a large town and handsome, built at right angles, and beautifully paved: the inhabitants and garrison about In walking through its streets in the evening I experienced the same sti?ing sensation in the atmosphere which we had felt before in Barbadoes and Tortola: it seemed as if exertion would kill me: I walked slowly and languidly, and was almost afraid to walk at all. The West Indies are now very sickly. In Barbadoes the troops are encamped, for the sake of health: we left three...
