Hartshorn, and his queenly wife, for the invaluable service they have rendered this Committee by their thoughtful, untiring and-consistent effort to increase the efficiency of this Association in the lines of work already under its care. They also have, by personal influence and at their own expense, held many important conferences, which have been of great service and far reaching in their results and by assembling the leaders in many cities and localities to meet. They and each other at lunches and banquets they have been able to gather valuable knowledge of conditions and to secure the adoption of plans that have resulted in great good to our Association.
