

The 1001 Chicago Nights Novella: 1 (Paperback)

By John A Barker

Amazon.com, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Written and created by a local Chicago artist living in Logan Square, the 1001 Chicago nights, is a collection of original short stories set in Chicago and loosely based on the classic, 1001 Arabian Nights. Centerpiece story, Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves, interweaves two other lesser-known ancient tales (The Tale of Ouj, son of Anak, and Two Dunces, and a Third) to support this novella. Unlike the original Nights, which independently stand-alone of each other, this novella interlocks twelve original stories together, creating a single story not present in the Arabian version. The cover art, two snails seated shell to shell, are a visual abstract of the numeric value, 1001.
