The School of Medicine University of North Dakota SCOPE: The University School of Medicine offers to young men and young women the first two years of medical work. ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS: Two years of prescribed collegiate work preceded by fifteen prescribed units of high school studies. DEGREE AND CERTIFICATE: Upon the satisfactory completion of these two years of medical work the University grants the degree of Bachelor of Arts and the Medical Certificate which admit to the third year of medical colleges of good standing. ADVANTAGES: (1)--Thoroly equipped teachers of all the subjects included in the combined curriculum; (2)--Splendid laboratory and library facilities; (3)--Small classes, making it possible for the instructor to give a large amount of personal attention to each student; (4)--Expenses reduced to the minimum; no tuition fee, only the semester fee of $25; living expenses very low; much car far saved. A course of one year of college work for nurses gives advanced standing in leading training schools. For further information, address THE REGISTRAR, University, N. D. Announcement THE Quarterly Journal is a periodical maintained by the University of North Dakota.
