After all costs have been deducted, Copyright holders, Steve Plant and Dana Freeman have agreed to donate the royalties from this edition of The Red Setter to dog re-homing charities. Steve Plant was asked by Dana Freeman if he would complete her late husband s manuscript which comprised of just 6 chapters and chapter headings, hand written on air mail paper. This is the result. An exciting tale of a young boy s development as he becomes inseparable from his new found friend, his Dog Red. Jamie hadn t really wanted another dog after the death of his beloved Duke , but his dad and Old Jock, by subterfuge, persuade Jamie to take a greyhound pup born to Jock s red setter, Sheila. Jamie names the pup Red, and after weeks of chasing rabbits in the hills near to home, Jamie realises he has much more than just a pet greyhound. Soon it becomes clear that winning the ultimate prize in greyhound racing, The Greyhound Derby may not be just a dream. Three less than...
