By Mr Bryan Winters

Bryan Winters. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 284 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. finding samson - the only superhero whose grave exists. Visit it today in Israel. Hang on, did an actual man free an entire nation By himself Thats serious action. Theres more. An insider from those ancient times tells us his enemies made shrewd plans, and conspired against Israel. Clever foes bring intrigue, . . . explaining how a beautiful woman got set up to betray this muscleman with aspergers. Problem is, Delilah fell for Samson, creating romance. With the rise and fall of nations, whose enmity exists to this day, we have a political thriller, . . . let alone the coverup tactics from all sides, lending suspense. Eventually, the Gods take an interest, elevating the tale to epic, . . . resulting in former enemies being imprisoned together, sharing their regrets. In toil and darkness, Samson begins to find himself. Thats how a 3200 year old story becomes a legend. Written in todays style, this tale races through the events of his era. Agendas of both those shrewd conspirators, and the strong mans tardy countrymen, are exposed. Readers will catch themselves, in more ways than...
