WILD RICE: GO! AIM PHILIPPINES CHAPTER III (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Eleven months ago, twenty-nine total strangers from California to Florida met for the first time in the steamy July heat of Gainesville, Georgia for World Race training camp. We showed up bright eyed and a little sweaty, with nothing but a 65-liter pack and a daypack for our daily essentials. We had little in common except for a passion to share the Gospel throughout Asia--eleven countries in Asia for eleven months to be exact. . Three months into the World Race we arrived in Osaka, Japan for orientation before our ministry began. Our host for the month was a man from New Zealand who had moved to Japan in his early twenties to be a long-term missionary, and now some twenty years later, continues to do ministry there with his wife and three sons. He spent several sessions with us explaining the intricacies of Japanese culture, which included everything from how to place your chopsticks at the end of a meal to why Japan is less than one percent Christian. At the beginning of one session he wrote wild rice on the white board and asked us to say it out loud. A little confused, we laughed and said it altogether. Grinning, he then said, that s how we say World Race in New Zealand. . During our drive, I couldn t help but feel excited despite the possible lack of A/C. I was looking forward to the unknown of what was in store for me for the month. I knew nothing about what ministry was going to look like, but I couldn t help but feel like this month was going to be a fresh awakening for me....
