Xulon Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. By William A. Lacey, creator of the inspirational program, WillUnite: Light of a New Generation. A short book that packs a powerful message. Seeing With the Heart describes how our struggles, faith, and ultimate triumph in challenging times can transform us in ways we never imagined, enabling us to become sources of light, strength, and inspiration to others. Through his reflections on the holy seasons, original essays and inspirational verses, William Lacey illustrates how our personal trials can lead us to a new perspective that aligns with God's, through which we gain spiritual sight, enabling us to see as the Lord does; that is, seeing what is truly essential in others by seeing with the heart. Thus, our faith is rewarded with the gifts of deeper purpose, compassion, and joy. William A. Lacey is the creator of an inspirational program, WillUnite: Light of a New Generation, that motivates people to social and cultural change. His articles and essays have been published in Christian publications and national news. In addition to possessing a professional background in corporate communications, William has experience in human services, where he worked as a mental health counselor, job developer and business skills teacher for both adult and youth populations with disabilities. William is also a former professional musician and percussion instructor.
