Xlibris, Corp. Paperback. Condition: New. 102 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. Wisdom for the Journey culminates years of periodic, miscellaneous writing. My desire to write spills over from my love for reading. Between reading fascinating books and creating writing projects, I began to say Someday, Ill write a book. Someday dragged on into years. I finally chose a book title and began to write. Pages of dated manuscript filed away in folders attest to my periodic bouts of writing. Years go by without a completed manuscript. It seems like the write-a-book dream had faded. Then one day when I least expect it, the write-a-book dream returns resuscitated and stronger than ever. I hear a voice in my spirit say You have a book, books to write before you sleep. You must begin to write now! Immediately I am moved to start over again, and to forget the manuscript I had toyed around with for so long. Wisdom for the Journey is the title that erupts from that voice. With it comes a mandate, Go all the way this time on to a published book. Suddenly, my self-talk is activated and I say to myself Here I go again back to the writing track. How many times have I been here before I must not allow history to repeat itself again When the self-talk stops, I realize that I need some way to ensure that I stay on course, keep procrastination away, and finish the book this time. The idea floods my mind that making a writing vow to God would give me assurance. I search the Bible for wisdom on making vows. Many people of the Bible have made them. Some of their vows have been foolishly made and produced unfavorable consequences. The eleventh chapter of Judges records such a vow. Jephthah, a great...
