Excerpt from Seventh Annual Report of the Board of Park Commissioner of the City of Saint Paul: For the Year Ending March 1, A. D. 1898 The railway thus located will be of great incidental advantage to the park. In that it will make easily accessible to visitors the western part of it, which can now only be reached by a trudge from the railway station of nearly three-quarters of a mile on foot or by vehicles. It will have a land ing place in the immediate vicinity of the picnic grounds - a favorite resort of thousands during the park season - ou one side, and on the other of a large level area near the southwestern corner set apart for ball grounds and other athletic sports. It will thus stimulate the development of this pleasing and picturesque section of the park and supply one of the most important needs of a. Park, play grounds easily accessible to the multitude.
