Summary - Not being a dentist turns out to be a stroke of good luck for Jerry. If he were, he would not have been summoned to sit on the jury with the delightful Jane, with whom he falls instantly in love. Only then does the sudden realisation that he is already engaged to Vera Upshaw strike him. Vera has been insisting that Jerry is entitled to his inheritance, currently kept in trust by his Uncles Crispin and Willoughby. Meanwhile Willoughby is thrilled at being the proud owner of Gainsborough's small painting of one of his ancestors called The Girl in Blue. But when she goes missing, believed stolen, Jerry is called upon to track her down, wherever she may be.
