Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Julia Franklin is an international concert pianist who is losing her nerve. Thousands of adoring fans pack the concert halls on both sides of the Atlantic. But Julia can t shake off her nightmares or the fear that her career may be over. What Julia doesn t know is that stage fright is the least of her problems. She has no idea that she is heir to a 200-year-old bequest worth a billion dollars - enough to bankrupt America s oldest bank when the bequest it holds in trust matures. Miles Bartholemew, son of the president of Bartholemew Equity and Trust, is trying to atone for his wild youth by working in the public defender s office in Sacramento, California, helping kids get off crime charges. Miles is stunned to learn on TV news that his grandfather, Nathaniel Bartholemew, has blown his brains out at the age of 91. Miles hasn t had any contact with the family for six years but now he receives a letter from his father in Boston. It contains a $1,000 dollar bill and a...
