Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . L Abyssinie septentrionale n est plus, d ailleurs, couverte d un voile impenetrable. Depuis un siecle elle a ete traversee a peu pres dans tous les sens: des missionnaires lutheriens s y sont fixes, des Europeens l habitent. Les premiers voyages connus remontent aux Portugais et a Pierre de Covilham, qui demeura a Gondar et ne revit plus sa patrie. Le pere Alvarez sejourna a son tour pres de six annees dans les etats abyssins, et de retour en Europe, vers 1540, y publia une relation dans laquelle il ne faut puiser qu avec defiance. Pendant le cours de ce siecle, l Abyssinie fut livree, pour ainsi dire, a des auxiliaires portugais dont ses rois avaient accepte les services contre les musulmans. A la suite des soldats avaient marche des missionnaires de l ordre des jesuites, qui s etaient emparees du pouvoir religieux pendant que les generaux imposaient une dictature militaire. C est a cette epoque qu il faut rattacher plusieurs edifices d un style evidemment europeen qui se rencontrent dans les principales villes du Tigre et du Samen. D autres monuments appartiennent a une civilisation anterieure, qui, suivant les uns, coïncidait avec celle de l Egypte, et suivant d autres remontait a l etablisement des Juifs en Abyssinie vers l an 600 avant notre ere. Il est inutile d ajouter que ce sont la de simples hypotheses, quoi qu elles aient donne lieu a des recherches curieuses et a d ingenieuses analogies.
