Product Description: Stonebridge is a place where the written word is considered priceless, where paintings and sculptures can be worth more than diamonds and where a song can inspire love that lasts for centuries. Genius and beauty are one and the same here, and invention and ambition are prized higher than martial skills. Dragons and mortals exist together in eternal harmony. Stonebridge is a city like no other, an oasis of renaissance culture, a home to art-obsessed copper dragons and an impassioned race of gnomes whose blood sings with the twin fires of magic and draconic spirit. Here live the greatest geniuses of the age, men and women who have embraced innovation and bypassed the boundaries of conventional thought for the endless vistas of imagination. A full map of the city, straddling a huge chasm and connected by a solid bridge that grants its name, is presented on the front inside cover, complete with a detailed key showing the most important locations players are likely to visit. The first chapter gives a complete history of the city, tracking the rise of innovation and invention, as well as casting a detailed look on the inhabitants of Stonebridge. The gnomes here are a little different...
