I am abandoned, I will be abandoned. There is no help, no hope, no use in trying to retrieve. And he floats passively down the tide of corruption and ruin. But at length, he meets with a voice of kind remonstrance, of gracious invitation, accompanied with a look of pity, a heart of love, and a hand of help; and it operates upon him with an electric force. It awakens hope, kindles desire, compacts resolution, impels exertion, and by the grace of God, he is redeemed from degradation and death. Such sometimes is the influence of mere benevolent sympathizing regard. But some perhaps are beginning to think, that I am inventing a very cheap kind of charity, somewhat akin to that which stops with saying, Be ye warmed and be ye filled. No. I do not stop yet; but proceed to suggest another way of helping the weak and destitute, namely, by visiting them and laboring amongst them to strengthen and build them up. I now speak of efforts in the way of Sabbath Schools, distribution of bibles and tracts, sustaining of meetings for preaching and praying; - efforts made in behalf of those in our respective vicinities. Much may be done, on this method, for the helping of the weak, and the saving of the lost, with but little expense. Those who do it, will more than get their pay, by being made...
