

The Gun Free Killing Zones of America (Paperback)

By MR Stephen Challis

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . With the Second Amendment in force and very much guarded, despite the activities of various anti- gun (anti- constitutional) groups, one could be forgiven for thinking the US citizen would feel very secure in his belief that he could defend himself anywhere within our borders, that assumption would be wrong. There are a large number of areas in the country, where the right to self- defense does not exist, where carrying a firearm is likely to lead to arrest and imprisonment. More importantly these areas are the cause of very high murder rates, in short these areas are killing Zones, where our most vulnerable citizens .our children are put at risk by the policies of misguided lawmakers who put politics before safety. These areas The Government established Gun Free Zones is where armed criminals can freely operate, safe in the knowledge that their victims are unable to fight back Criminals as usual ignored the law but took note that they would be safe from any armed defense, when committing a crime in these areas. The carnage that followed was both...
