

HISTORY OF TELFAIR COUNTY from 1812 to 1949

By Mann, Floris Perkins

Orig. pub. Macon, GA 1949. Reprinted 1978, 2003, 2016. Hardcover. Condition: New. xviii, 204 pp., illus., new index. Print on Demand Edition 2016. Telfair County was created in 1807; later, portions of the county were used in the creation of Dodge, Coffee, and Montgomery counties. Written as a series of historical vignettes, the book contains sketches of the pioneer settlers and information on the dangers they faced and the way they lived. The political, legal, religious, and educational aspects of the county are covered. Civil War rosters are included along with letters from the troops. There is a section on World War I including letters home from soldiers and nurses who were "over there." A complete name index was prepared for this edition.
