Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In this coming of age tale, first time author David Ferrell paints a lovely marriage between the poetry and dialogue that surrounds the love stories of each generation---having chosen different paths, one family discovers what might have been If Only Again. Separated by war, young lovers reunite and the ties they have weaved begin to unravel as their love story unfolds. Circling between past and present, Kathryn Clarke discovers the truth that haunts her past. How he came to her, and soon left her. Somewhere in between it all when they had fallen in love, and shared an unforgettable summer together. A time when love was all they needed to survive, of when she was seventeen.
