THE DISCIPLE: THE STORY OF ONE BOY S TRIUMPH OVER BULLYING (PAPERBACK)

Strategic Book Publishing Rights Agency, LLC, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand *****.

The Disciple is the story of fourth grader Devin Tyler, who is consistently bullied at school. The story takes a different turn though once Devin, a.k.a. The Disciple, and his parents cast their cares of Devin s bullying onto God, who by His grace, reveals the inner motivations of a bully. Devin is encouraged by a God-given dream to understand and confront Raymond, his tormentor, who is surprised by how Devin responds to his bullying. Devin knows he has to face his challenges, but with the help of God and his parents, he not only discovers how to confront the bully, but gains insight into some of the motives behind bullying. Everyone can relate to bullying on some level because it is a universal subject. This revealing children s story brings a new vantage to the topic by looking at it from God s perspective. About the Author: First-time author Jackie Mitchell is a professional writer residing in Queens, New York. Louis Henry Mitchell is her husband and the illustrator of The Disciple. He is also an artist for Sesame Street. Jacqueline and Louis are Christians devoted to bringing glory to God through their lives and work. Because of the beautiful story behind the story, which is how God used the story of The Disciple to unite my husband and me, this work will continue to have a sweet and sentimental place in my heart.
