Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Junior English Activities, Vol. 3 Book-using Skills and Appreciations. In meeting social situations, book-using skills must be acquired. They are an essential part of the course in communication. The pupil must learn to use effectively indexes, tables of contents, the dictionary, the encyclopedia, and the library. The cultivation of joy in reading and of skill in reading for a purpose are aims of good teaching. To aid in the acquisition of book using skills and appreciations, each unit contains a book list, which may profitably be used further to enrich the content material of the unit. Guides or Standards. From time to time throughout the texts, language guides are provided. These are not to be learned by rote. Rather they are to be used by the pupil in improving his oral and written composition, guiding his efforts as he works, and serving as standards for appraising his finished product. By means of these guides the pupil acquaints himself with definite goals for each type of language expression. From such guides he should make his own self-help standards, which he applies to his speech and to his written work. As his own critic and editor, he has his attention focused constantly on ways and means of personal improvement and growth in language power.
