The huntsmen are celebrated trench architect, from the J r o painting representing a Moorish on horseback and On foot. ; When the wild boar is slain, he is hoisted on the back of a mule by attendants, and borne triumphantly home. A great variety of birds and trees--amid the branches of which monkeys partially conceal themselves--make up the various scenes. In spite of the want of perspective, there is much spirit in the details, and the female figures especially are most graceful.
