A Counseling Primer: An Introduction to the Profession

By Mary H. Guindon

Taylor Francis Ltd, United Kingdom, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 251 x 175 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A Counseling Primer presents an introduction to the counseling profession that provides students with a foundation for success. This engaging and accessible text covers the core CACREP Standard of Professional Orientation with a comprehensive overview of the field. It: * Anticipates the questions of beginning students with a series of chapters that ask who counselors (and clients) are, what counseling is, when and where it is practiced, and why counselors choose the profession. * Introduces students to the basics of essential attending and listening skills. * Challenges readers with case vignettes and discussion questions. * Encourages self-reflection and offers skills for observation of others. * Supports student learning with extensive pedagogical features and resources. * Enhances the reading experience with a robust online instructor s manual. This engaging textbook is full of useful features to enhance the learning experience. Each chapter includes points to ponder , case examples, an in practice: what would you do? vignette with discussion questions, and a chapter summary. A self-reflection journaling exercise, termed the TFAC Chart (Thoughts, Feelings, Actions, Context) reinforces the material from each...
