Excerpt from Oration: Delivered Before the Students of Irving College, Manchester, February 22d, 1859 Sion resigned, and he went back to be the solace and comfort of his mother. History hardly furnishes a brighter example of strong filial love - and God, that He might set His seal of approval, in exemplification of the precept and promise, Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee - ever after, crowned his life with success, in every undertaking. Oh that the youth of our land, would lay it to heart, ponder, and profit by it, that the brightest and noblest, the most exalted trait of character, in the loftiest specimen of humanity God ever raised up, was deferential regard to the wishes of a mother. How important a lesson in this fast age, when the youth, almost with his first boots, puts on a disregard of a mother's admonition, and boasts within himself that he has grown to be too large to be under the control of...
