Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Proceedings of the Sixteenth Annual Meeting of the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association: Held at Morehead City, July 10th and 11th, 1895, Also the Constitution, by-Laws, Code of Ethics, Roll of Members, and the State Pharmacy Law, With List of Registered Pharmacists I have been requested by the Mayor of our little town by the sea to perform the pleasant duty of extending to you in his name a cordial welcome, not only to our health-giving breezes, but to our homes. Yours is a profession that has made immense strides in recent years, and there is no computing the debt of gratitude that suffering humanity owes to your labors. In 1617 the apothecary and the grocer were one and the same. In that year your profession was acknowledged as a distinct one and licensed. From then until now your march has been onward and upward. Time would fail me to tell one-half of what you have accomplished for the alleviation of suffering and the prolongation of life. But go on in your good work. God has many secrets hidden in the store house of Nature yet unrevealed, and there are undreamed of heights in your profession that will yet be attained through the same earnestness and diligence that have characterized you in the past.
