Excerpt: . escape, And stir up fresh rebellions! Die, base youth! ABSALOM. O spare me, spare me for my father s sake! 1 with repentant floods of tears will bathe On bended knees his feet, and never more Against his fond paternal goodness sin. JOAB. Thy death is now the sole atonement prince, Which thou to justice and thy sire canst make. ABSALOM. O let me live, and I will be thy slave! JOAB. Die, whining coward! Thus thy blood I spill, Unworthy of the source from whence it flowed. Joab and his band strike Absalom through with their darts. So perish all the foemen of the king! Take down the rebel, and in yonder pit His carcass cast; and o er it pile on high The mound, the monumental mound, of stones.-- Blow ye the trump, and let the war-horn wake The echoes of these...
