"Delirium Books continues its rich history in discovering the talents of tomorrow. New Dark Voices, edited by Shane Ryan Staley, is an anthology series that focuses on publishing the best new voices in the horror genre before they become the masters of the genre. The first anthology features 3 talented horror authors (Michael Oliveri, Gene O'Neill, and John Urbancik) with 3 brand new novellas! Beneath Midnight by John Urbancik On the last night of the carnival, William Warde meets a new friend. Together, they explore the tunnels beneath the city, the cellars and crypts and catacombs, and forgotten, but not quite empty, apartments. Under the city of Midnight, buried secrets are forgotten, but not lost. The darkness hides exiles who have returned to claim what is theirs. And the Spider Dragon, the carnival's biggest, meanest roller coaster, was named for the creature living in those tunnels. To Travel Among Men by Michael Oliveri Mankind has changed. People have evolved or perhaps...
