Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Prophetic Activist Art: Handbook for a Spiritual Revolution grows out of Tom Block s 20-year history as an activist artist, writer and art producer. It outlines a specific model of using art to spur social transformation, as an extension of both artistic and spiritual practice. It is unique in that it moves beyond simply documenting past activist projects -- as do the other works in this field -- to developing a model which can be implemented by artists working in any media. Prophetic Activist Art brings together medieval conceptions of prophecy, art s historic purpose to raise the human gaze toward the ineffable and the contemporary cult of the individual, to propose a mysticism of action, with art as the regenerating force. This theory moves beyond using activist art simply to shock the audience, or raise awareness of social issues, to providing specific and quantifiable social change. As Mr. Block notes in the introduction: In this short treatise, part manifesto, part handbook, I give an honest assessment of just what specific prophetic impetus an artist can hope to provide to the general society, and how he or she might do so. The following chapters outline a vision of how artists can use their talents to infuse a moral center into the public worlds of politics, the media and advertising, thereby introducing prophetic inspiration into the general society. I outline specific manners of using art to inspire quantifiable positive social change, believing that contemporary mysticism must be expressed as action. This defines the rejuvenation of creativity s historic purpose, for our era. Here lies the nexus of prophetic inspiration and the contemporary artist s studio. This book is based in the belief that art has...
