Caterina watches the activity on the 15th-century terrace. American CIA and FBI agents team with Italian Carabinieri and forensic experts to examine the xenophobic verbiage sprayed in red paint on the floor tiles and stone walls of her rental cottage. It is less than two years since she left the USA and followed her roots to the Italian homeland. Her daughter recently joined her on what started as a solo journey. Both of their lives will soon change forever; this incident is only the beginning. Truth trumps fiction when this true story unfolds Mafia connections, a threatened deportation, International intrigue, a wedding and a birth. One century after her grandparents emigration from Italy she completes a full circle to find her roots. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
