This is a good read! An Adults ONLY story that contains some graphic and shocking violence coupled with intrigue and conspiracy. A portrayal of life and death in war-torn Russia, the depths of depravity a human can sink to, and the cruel mind games played by those in power. It is a look inside the Kremlin and the NKVD in the time of Stalin, and into life in a USSR the early Russian revolutionaries would never have imagined. This first novel from the author, Andrew J. Wilson, is an elemental, brutal, and powerful story that will keep you turning the pages as it causes you to ask questions of your own humanity. Set in a time when the whole of Russia is actively engaged in a battle for its very existence: the Non-Aggression Pact between Stalin and Hitler has...
