THE TAU CROSS MYSTERY (PAPERBACK)

Coachwhip Publications, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. The tenth Clinton Driffield detective novel, 1935 s The Tau Cross Mystery . . . moves away from a country house milieu . . . to a well-conveyed setting in an English suburb beset with a multitude of sins. The mystery itself is meticulously clued and compelling and the kicker of a closing paragraph is a classic of its kind, showing a pithily sardonic Sir Clinton to great advantage. Additionally, the author paints some excellent character portraits. . . . I fully agree with the Sunday Times reviewer s enthusiastic assessment of The Tau Cross Mystery: Quiet domestic murder, full of the neatest detective points. . . . [T]hese are not the detective s stock figures, but fully realised human beings. The American humorist and crime fiction reviewer Will Cuppy was similarly discerning in his praise of Tau Cross. Having a keen appreciation for data and material fact, Cuppy was dazzled by the tale s abundance of clues and many other aids to armchair sleuthing, including an extra pair of shoes, a handkerchief soaked in gore . . . an overturned paint pot . . . the fact that the corpse wears rubber gloves . . . a small bludgeon, a crumpled piece of brown paper and a little gold ornament in the shape of a Tau cross. With such fascinating aids at Clinton Driffield s disposal, the delighted Cuppy concluded, Sir Clinton can hardly fail. (From the Introduction.
