Can you die from a broken heart? Kc Hutter thought so. She was given away by her parents; went through two divorces; experienced physical and mental abuse; moved thirty-eight times trying to find a peaceful home; mourned the death of her son and business partner, who died from acute leukemia at the age of thirty-two. In the midst of abandonment, divorce, death, and fear, was there any hope for healing? And if so, where? Kc spent years trying to mend her broken heart. Who of us has not cried out in desperation for some relief from our pain? Travel with Kc on her journey from heartache to healing. Allow her to introduce you to the Mender of Broken Hearts.
