Of all the books that have meant the most to me, none rivals the Psalms. The living have lived by them, and the dying have died with them. I was nurtured on the Psalms. Although the Psalms have mainly been used for private devotions or sung in the liturgy of the church, my intent is to create a book for group study of the Psalms. We will listen to their cries of distress and perplexities as if they were our own. And, we will rejoice and celebrate their moments of deliverance and rejoicing as they were our own. Richard L. Morgan, Ph.D.
