BookBaby, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The Runnings is about corruption at the highest level of government and of the lawyer who gets caught in middle of a power struggle between political titans. The opening scene: - There was no warning, the man lunged with the long bladed ratchet. The razor sharp point hit the butt of the gun that Brandon carried stuck in his waist and concealed by his shirt. Brandon Chong speculated that robbery was the motive for the attempt on his life, but the wily old Detective Sergeant Ebenezer Williams thinks otherwise. His enquiry suggests that there is a more sinister motive, but not even his wildest imagines could have prepared him for the ultimate truth. A 2nd attempt on the lawyer s life leaves no doubt that someone has made a deliberate decision that he should die. Brandon has no idea who would want to kill him nor does he have any inkling as to why his death has become so important. On the advise of the police Brandon goes into hiding, in doing so he has cut off contact with Karla, his latest girlfriend. However, he has invited Margo his secretary and former lover to the small apartment fondly called the Butcher shop . But Fate plays its cards in a predictably unpredictable way. Detective Ebenezer Williams is of the opinion that a key figure to the investigation is safest not in the police lock-up, but with Brandon. He delivers the tantalizing Charonette Baxter to Brandon s doorstep on the very evening that Margo, is to visit. Not allowing Brandon to speak, Willie continued, Besides young man, when I was your age if someone brought me a girl looking like her to spend the night, I would owe him an eternal debt...
