Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Six Seasons Down Under is a story of two Americans who have their personal six seasons in Australia as newlyweds--seasons of emotions and geographic locations. Their time in Australia is spent getting to know the country and each other . Based primarily in Sydney, the story covers forty-five weeks of adventures that range well beyond the parameters of Sydney central, with trips to the hot dry outback desert, wet and tropical Queensland, and lush forests of Tasmania. The couple encounters some hard times--with missing friends and family, dealing with the noisy neighbors, not having access to good Mexican food, as well as just getting accustomed to the way things work down under--mixed with some unforgettable experiences like being a party of the Olympics, living on the Sydney harbor, exploring the Australian countryside and meeting wonderful people along the way. Part love story, part travel guide, Six Seasons Down Under will have you immersed in the trials and tribulations of new love and inspire you to get off the couch and have an adventure of your own.
