The leaves and tops are the medicinal parts, and it is best used in form of a hot tea or syrup. Medical properties and uses. --This remedy is very mild in its action, yet quite certain. It makes a very valuable cough syrup, quiets nervous excitation, and therefore induces sleep. For bad colds the hot tea should be drank on going to bed. Petroselinum Sativum. Parsley. This is a garden plant, and the tops are used in cooking and flavoring different dishes, especially soups and dressing. The root is a splendid cooling diuretic, and should be given in all kidney troubles in low forms of fever. I have known it to succeed when more noted remedies failed. The only way I give it is in the form of a tea made from...
