When Thea Middleton finds herself behind bars for an unthinkable crime, she realises she s become the most hated member of any society: a failed mother. As she, her husband Clay and oldest daughter Sanusha try to repair their shattered lives, their individual accounts form the pieces of a tragic puzzle that will haunt them forever. Shadow Self is a good book. Somehow, I feel like saying that is an understatement. But what else can one say about a book one really loves? The Critical Literature Review Every intricate detail penned by Marais takes the reader emotionally and painfully through Thea s journey Herald Live Written with compelling power and jagged intensity.
