In this thrilling new mainstream novel from the #1 Amazon Bestselling Author of a dozen books, comes the tale about two friends who learn that sometimes sharing a woman just won't work in.THE COLLABORATION. Some Rules Aren't Meant To Be Broken. Bestselling novelists Branden Tacoma and Julian Tate are like brothers. When Branden's parents died in a freak accident, Branden and his family were there to take him in. When Julian's solo writing career was starting to plummet, Branden stopped his writing and suggested they collaborate on a project. They act more like brother's than friends. After their successful collaboration goes all the way to the top, Branden and Julian's success takes off. There's only one problem.they both have taken a liking to their beautiful new editor, Desire Searington. Desire likes them both, but she can't fathom breaking her own set of rules . As Julian and Branden make their case for her heart, Desi is trying to piece her life back together after witnessing her fiancée's horrible betrayal with two women. After much arguing, bickering, and nonsense; Desire decides to do the impossible.marry them both. All seems to be going well until Desire drops a bombshell.she's pregnant and one of them could be the father. The once perfect marriage is set to implode as the competition between Branden and Julian heats up. When one of them takes things a little too far, danger rears its ugly head. Will Desi's reckless decision be the cause of one them losing their lives? Keyon C. Polite, the national bestselling author of more than sixteen titles, takes on mainstream fiction with...
