

Untold Stories from Boyle Heights: An in Our Global Village Book

By Class of 2011 Seniors, School of Law Government at Roosevelt Hi

School of Law and Government at Roosevelt High School. Paperback. Condition: New. 176 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.2in. x 0.6in. These untold stories were written by Class of 2011 Seniors from the School of Law and Government at Roosevelt High School, Los Angeles, California. This years class chose to tell the stories of their parents and family members, and in the process gave voice to those that often go unnoticed. These chapters were constructed by students who interviewed their subjects countless times in order to tell true stories of the past. Although each story possesses a unique and distinct voice, many of them share similar themes, involving birth and death, hardship and determination, home and dislocation, love and cruelty, family and independence. We hope that readers accept these stories without judgment and that the diversity and strength of the Boyle Heights community emerges from the pages. These stories are important and real. This is the young generation demanding that they be passed on. School of Law and Government is one of seven small schools on the campus of Roosevelt High School, in the Boyle Heights community of Los Angeles, California. Fifty-seven seniors from the Class of 2011 participated in the writing...

Reviews

Thorough guideline! Its this type of good read. It is really simplistic but shocks from the 50 percent from the publication. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

The most effective publication i at any time read. We have study and i am sure that i will likely to read yet again once again in the foreseeable future. You will not truly feel monotony at anytime of your time (that's what catalogs are for about in the event you request me).
