Excerpt: .and the same plan of salvation which was taught by Christ and his disciples. And the Lutheran church is not only the modern church of to-day, but it will always be the modern church. When the Catholic church has filled the hearts of many with. fear and superstition, and when the Reformed church has succeeded in depriving many others of the true faith by supplanting faith with reason, then it will be the Lutheran church that will be called upon to give the world what it needs for its spiritual and eternal welfare. And the Lutheran church will not be found wanting. It is, indeed, the old apostolic church, and therefore it is to-day, and always will be, the modern church in the true sense of the word. B. The Mission of the Lutheran Church in Our Country. Dr. H. G. Stub: A church with...
