Throughout history, humans have unknowingly existed alongside wizards and vampires, separated only by an invisible wall. While the mortal world remains blissfully unaware of its paranormal neighbors, the denizens of the mystical realm have long heard the prophecy that one day a tainted-blood would descend upon their land. Growing up among the mortals, eighteen-year-old Philip Wescott thinks his life is mind-numbingly ordinary until he survives a strange accident and uncovers his true identity. Upon learning that he is a demi-wizard and his departed mother was originally from the mystical realm, Philip sets out to explore his origins and practice his newfound powers. Meanwhile, a dangerous dignitary of the vampire coven is intent on resurrecting the alpha vampire through his bloodline and sees the presence of the half-breed wizard as a threat to his power play. And the fact that a young female vampire has befriended him only makes matters worse. The first of a trilogy, Legends Prophecy: Crimson Chant is a captivating paranormal fantasy adventure that delves into the origins of vampires and introduces you to an unforgettable world of wizardry where love and courage are tested beyond mortal bounds.
